CONVENTION

To be Held by C. E. Societies at Cincinnati.

For five years the Christian Endeavers of Cincinnati have urged their claims for an International convention.
In their invitation they have had the cordial support of the business men and the citizens generally. Their persistence has been rewarded. Cincinnati will entertain the Twentieth International convention from July 6 to 10, and it promises to be the largest in point of attendance as well as the best best promises to be the largest in point of attendance, as well as the best religious convention ever held in this country. The "Committee of 1901," with headquarters in the Y. M. C. A. building, are busily engaged in the preparations.

INCORPORATED

By Contractors Who Will Build the Line.

"The Richmond & Mahoning Railroad Co., was incorporated by a number of contractors who are working in the interests of the Vanderbilts," said a local railroad man today.
"I know that the men who are now in this city as the representatives of the company have no interest in the project aside from the fact that they will do the construction work. The line will be part of the great Vanderbilt system, connecting the P. & L. E. and the Northern Ohio."

Those famous little pills, Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers will remove all impurities from your system, cleanse your bowels, make them regular.

PERMANENT

Improvements Being Made Along Northern Ohio.

Several construction crews are working on the Northern Ohio between Akron and Delphos, the western terminus of the line. The improvements that are being made are of a permanent nature. Sunday an iron bridge was placed across Silver st., the old wooden structure having been removed.

JUSTICE FOR ALL.

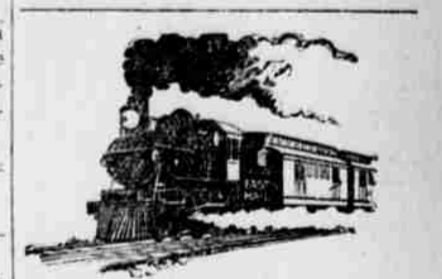

Mr. Nash Getting Ready to Deal
It Out.

Justice-elect Ira L. Nash sent a certificate of his election to the Secretary of State Saturday, and he expects his commission by Thursday. As yet Justice Nash has not decided upon a location. He will, if rooms can be secured, locate in an office on either side of South Main st., between Market and Mill sts.

Constable-elect John P. Vosburg expects to be sworn into office today. He will have office headquarters with Justice Nash.

You will waste time if you try to cure indigestion or dyspepsia by starving yourself. That only makes it worse when you do eat heartily. You always need plenty of good food properly digested. Kodo Dyspepsia Cure is the result of years of scientific research for something that would digest not only some elements of food but every kind. And it is the one remedy that will do it.
